

Angel Road Infant Newsletter

05.10.2018

Classroom doors are open at 8.45am Could we please remind parents that the register is at 8.55am
Children must be in school, sitting on the carpet by this time.
We have to lock the big playground gates shortly after this at 9.00am in order to keep your children safe.

Be on time

at five to nine

Free wood

You may have noticed that we have had to remove another tree at the front of the Junior School as it was dying and had become unsafe. Some wood has been left in the junior school car park and is free to collect. The pieces are quite large so you may want to have a look before collecting.

Mums, dads and carers tasting session

Tuesday 9th October 2:30 - Angel Road Infant

Norse (our kitchen contractors) would like to invite mums, dads and carers to taste the new winter menu that will start after half term. Please come along to the infant school at 2:30pm.

Books For Schools

This is your chance to help your school win its share of £20,000 in books to inspire, inform and entertain the next generation of readers.

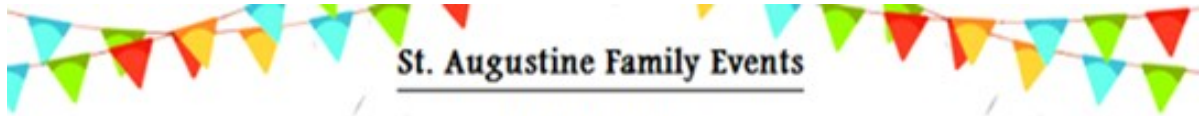

The scheme is aimed at primary and infant schools, who will be able to choose which books they get from a list of more than 700 titles.

tokens will appear in this newspaper as well as its sister publications across the region for parents, school staff and friends to collect.

The tokens can then be donated directly to the school, and for every 1,000 tokens collected, the school will receive £100 worth of free books. Four schools with the most tokens per student at the end of the campaign will win a bonus £2,500 worth of books. Tokens will be printed in the Eastern Daily Press, Norwich Evening News, Great Yarmouth Mercury, The Lowestoft Journal, Beccles & Bungay Journal, Dereham Times, Fakenham & Wells Times and the North Norfolk News.

Please drop tokens into the School Office.

St. Augustine Family Events

Little Activists!

Saturday 6thth October 16.00 – 19.00

St. Augustine's Hall (behind the old church)

We are joining forces with Angrier Square and inviting children and their families to join us in an art workshop during which we will explore ideas about what the children want for the redevelopment of Anglia Square.

We will be making placards, using a range of materials and techniques to make protest art.

Children will be able to have their work included in an art exhibition.

This is a FREE event with a shared meal at the end
