Dear Mums, Dads and Carers,

Following my successful application for a post at another Multi Academy Trust I will be leaving Angel Road at the end of this academic year. I am joining the Diocese of Norwich Education Trust as an Academies Executive Principal, working with schools across Norfolk and Suffolk.

The process to appoint a new Headteacher will be managed by Diversa and will take place over the course of this term.

My focus for the rest of this term will be managing the proposed reduction of support staff across both schools. As soon as this process is completed we will share with you the staff structure for next year.

As was explained in the newsletter last week, we have enjoyed a period of time with a very high staffing ratio. The reduction in budget, rising staff costs and lower numbers joining the Infant School have inevitably caused us to make changes. However, class structures and sizes will be the same as other similar schools and we will work hard to minimise any reduction in support staff.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my time at Angel Road and, although the current financial situation is difficult, I will leave with many happy memories. I believe the planned developments for Diversa to work with another Multi Academy Trust provide great opportunities for both schools and know that the staff and children will continue to make Angel Road a successful place to learn and develop.
